

Volunteering with Reclaiming Reds

By volunteering for Reclaiming Reds, you will help us fulfil our aims of making Knowsley a place where red squirrels can thrive by contributing towards our vital conservation work.

We aim to remove barriers to volunteering by investing in the hardworking volunteers that keep our project going. That's why we offer a range of benefits:

Travel Expenses

Don't worry about the cost of your travel, because you can claim it back

Other expenses

Things like childcare can limit your availability, so we're here to help pay for it – just ask!

Training

If there are relevant skills you would like to develop whilst with us, we can help

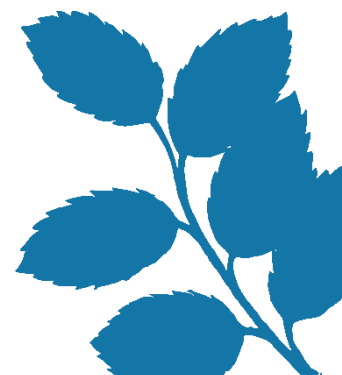

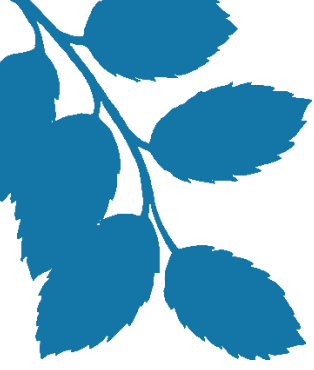

Discounts

You will get free entry to Knowsley Safari on non-volunteer days and discounted food when on duty

Contact reclaimingreds@knowsley.com to apply

Role Description

Research & Administration Volunteers

Data collection

This will involve monitoring red and grey squirrel populations through surveying methods. It may also involve data collection for social science at events (subject to event availability).

Skills you will learn...

How to conduct a transect

How to set a hair tube

How to use
Trail Cams

Role Description

Research & Administration Volunteers

Data input

This will involve going through the Trail Cam, transect and social science data and inputting this using either Microsoft Excel or Google Sheets.

Skills you will learn...

How to interpret Trail Cam images and videos

Data input using Microsoft Excel / Google Sheets

How to use Google Drive

